Financial.

NEW YORK, Mar. 1 .- The Post's financial NEW YORK, Mar. 1.—The Post's financial article to-day siys: At the Stock Exchange the improved feeling is shown in a generally higher range of prices. U.S. bonds are $34 higher, the 4s are selling ex-quarterly interest, the 53 and 63 are another eighth above the Treesury price of purchase. R. B. bonds are up $413, the latter Tex & Pac incomes. The rise in stock ranges from $43 per cont, the largest rise having been in Iron Moust, the next in W. u, and the next in the Tex & Pac. In the money market the stock brokers in many cases are naving a the stock brokers in many cases are paying a commission of 1-16, but there is a much steadier tone to this as well as the other markets on the prospect of a defeat of the refunding bill and the adjournment of Congress.
